“Legitimacy” of Temptation

Luke 4:1-4

Temptation No.1

4 1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, 2 where for forty days he was tempted [1] by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry. 3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread." 4 Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone.'[2]"

Stepping out of the will of God

Luke 4:5-8

Temptation No. 2

5 The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. 6 And he said to him, "I will give you all their authority and splendor; it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. 7 If you worship me, it will all be yours." 8 Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.'[3]"

Without the price tag of the Cross

Luke 4:9-12

Temptation No.3

9 The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down from here. 10 For it is written: " 'He will command his angels concerning you to guard you carefully; 11 they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'[4] " 12 Jesus answered, "It is said: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'[5]"

Luke 4:13

13 When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left him until an opportune time.

A dramatic photograph of a crucifixion. The figure is on the cross, set against a sky filled with heavy, golden-brown clouds. The lighting is low, creating a somber and powerful atmosphere. The cross is made of dark wood, and the figure is positioned on the left side of the frame.

8 Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered.
